Lutherans For Life | Life Thoughts in the Church Year

Last night, as I did the final prep for my How to Show up for Your Life presentation, I thought about how I could get caught up on my work over the next few days while relaxing with my husband and daughter. They are meeting me this week while I'm traveling for a little getaway. It took me a moment to see the irony, to realize that by catching up on work while we are together, I wouldn't be ...
